

Verona's Daily

OUTBREAK IN THE STREETS!

By: Alex Rivers

This afternoon in the streets of Verona, a fight had broken out between two of the wealthiest families: the Montagues and the Capulets. This fight included Romeo Montague, Tybalt Capulet, Benvolio Montague, and Mercutio Montague. It turned out to be a vicious and brutal fight indeed.

It all started when a group of the Montagues (including Romeo, Benvolio, and Mercutio), decided to go to a Capulet ball. When Tybalt found about this, he was angry and wanted to fight Romeo and the gang right then and there.

Thankfully Lord Capulet would not let him. But that didn't stop Tybalt from getting revenge.

The next few weeks were peaceful. But Tybalt caught up with Mercutio and Benvolio and wanted to fight with Romeo, but Mercutio wouldn't let that happen, so he fought Tybalt himself. When Romeo tried to intervene, Tybalt made a swift stab and killed Mercutio. Tybalt then fled. When Tybalt returned, Romeo decided to fight in order to avenge his friend Mercutio. Romeo kills Tybalt with a deadly blow.

Afterwards, while talking to the Prince of Verona, we find out that Romeo's punishment wasn't death after all. It was banishment from the city. Some think that this is too cruel of a punishment, while others think it's fair. This was a terrible feud and lets all hope this never happens again.